Continuation of 4(e) Other: Regarding amendments to claims, 37 CFR 1.121 states, in relevant part: "The text of any added subject matter must be shown by underlining the added text. The text of any deleted matter must be shown by strike-through except that double brackets placed before and after the deleted characters may be used to show deletion of five or fewer consecutive characters. The text of any deleted subject matter must be shown by being placed within double brackets if strike-through cannot be easily perceived." Various amendments to the claims (e.g. claims 1, 18, 38) show text of five or fewer consecutive characters shown with strike-through. It is unclear what is intended. If deletion of subject matter is intended, the text of the deleted matter of five or fewer consecutive characters must be shown enclosed within double brackets as required by 37 CFR 1.121.
